EXPECTS JUAREZ TO PROFIT

MEXICAN COURSE LIKELY TO BENEFIT BY CURTAILMENT OF WINTER RACING.

General Manager Winn Declares Financial Results of Juarez Venture to Be as Good as Expected -Ambitious Plans for Next Season,

El Paso, Tex., January 30.—One of the most brilliant cards of the meeting, summerlike weather and the Guadalajara Handicap run over the full circuit of the track, drew one of the largest crowds of the season to Terrazas Park yesterday. The sport proved interesting throughout, each of the races being hotly contested from start to finish, and as all the winners were well backed, the public had a profitable day.

the winners were well backed, the public had a profitable day.

Polls, the winner of the handicap, was not fancied by the talent, which backed the Ireland entry, Cherryola, heavily. Cherryola proved a poor selection, never having any of her wonted speed during the running. Howard rode a clever race on the winner. When he found the pace to be excessively slow, he sent his mount to the front, stole a long lead and before the other riders woke up he had the race won.

lead and before the other riders woke up he had the race won.

The third race, a purse at five and a half furlongs, attracted a fine lot of sprinters, but proved somewhat of a disappointment, as Enfield, one of the best fancied contenders, propped at the start and had no chance thereafter.

Jockey T. Rice was fined $100 by the stewards for rough riding in the fourth race Saturday.

Lena Lech and Del Cruzador were put on the schooling list by starter Cassidy today.

After the win of Kopek in the sixth race, selling race hostilities were renewed by J. Pinkstaff, who bid up the winner to $705. The horse was retained by owner Buck.

"The Juarez race track is in the business to stay as long as its concession lasts—twenty years. It may go on for a longer time, but its life will extend at least for that time. The enemies of racing trying to injure it, have included in their attack the Juarez track, saying that it was on its last legs and rendy to close its gates at any time, I wish to deny those reports in as emphatic terms as I may express them."

capress them. The theme words Col. Matt. Winn, manager of the Juarez race track, told just what the plans of the track managers are for the future. He went on to Juarez race track, told just what the plans of the track managers are for the future. He went on to say:

"The Juarez race track has lived up to the expectations of its stockholders. This means that the returns from its gate and its other revenues have been adequate to satisfy the men who have placed money in it. It is untrue that the Juarez track has been losing considerable money and that its stockholders are disappointed. The sport is well supported and we are doing a fine business—as well as any new track can expect to do in the first years of its existence.

"Just to show that the club is in racing to stay, the directors are already planning for next year's business. Instead of lowering the value of the purses or the stakes, the directors will increase the amount of added money and next year we will give away to horsemen purses and stakes worth nearly $400,000. That is our reply to the men who have been maligning the track.

"Next winter we expect to have all the racing men throughout the United States at Juarez. The conditions will favor their presence at our course. The anti-public betting bill that will go into effect in a few months in Florida may wipe out racing in that state. With present prospects in California it would seem that there would be little likelihood of racing at the Oakland track next winter. Of course, I do not believe that the bill as now framed in California will stand the test of the courts there. I think that ultimately the courts will decide against the new measure, as it is narrow and seemingly unconstitutional. But before the courts can hand down their decision in the matter there will be at least six or eight months lost. Before the racing men of California can obtain redress a winter will have passed. With no other place to go they will naturally look for a safe harbor in their troubles. And that safe harbor is the Juarez track."

BEDWELL CASE STILL HANGS FIRE.

Members of Kentucky State Racing Commission Unable to Agree on Course to Be Pursued.

Lexington, Ky., January 30.—The Kentucky State Racing Commission, all present except Chairman E. F. Clay, met here today and allotted to the Kentucky Association eleven days, from Saturday, April 29, to Thursday. May 11, inclusive, for the meeting at the local track. Action on the applications of the New Louisville Jockey Club and the Latonia Jockey Club was deferred until Tuesday, February 21, to which time the commission adjourned. Louisville has asked for twenty-five days, from Saturday, May 15, to Saturday, June 10. Latonia wants thirty-one days, from Tuesday, May 30, to Tuesday, July 4. Secretary Bidwell was instructed to notify the officials of these tracks of the conflict in the dates requested and to ask them to amend their applications. The several rules and amendments to the rules were discussed, but action was deferred until the next meeting. There appears to be a disposition in the commission to do away with stakes of the guaranteed variety and to induce the race track managers to give larger purses and increase the distances of the races.

The case of H, G. Bedwell was as usual discussed, but there was no motion to reopes it. The commissioners want to do something for the relief of this man, but they are not agreed as to what is best to be done. Col. Milton Young favors the reinstatement of Mr. Bedwell and all of his horses, feeling that he has been sufficiently punished. George J. Long is is of the opinion that the case should be referred back to Judge Charles F. Price, who ruled him off.

Johnson N. Canden stands for an amendmen of the licrose without lifting the ban from Mr. Bedwell and letter to Colonel Clay, in a letter to Colonel Young, sent his proxy to be voted for Mr. Bedwell's relief.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., January 30.—The first foal in this country by the English stallion, St. Savin (son of St. Simon and Aboyne, by Hampton), is a chestnut colt dropped this morning by First Land (dam of Mollie Donolme), by Pioneer, at Irving H. Wheateroft's St. James Stud. The first of St. Savin's get are four yearlings now owned by Arthur James in England.

Trainer French Brooks is making preparations to ship the stable of Clay Brothers to Louisville this week. Several promising two-year-olds in this string were not broken until late last fall and they have never been tried out. The Louisville track will afford an earlier opportunity for ascertaining what they possess in the way of speed.

WALKER-YOUNG BILL FINALLY PASSES.

San Francisco. Cal., January 30.—Arasce scored his fifth consecutive victory when he beat some fast sprinters in the Fairy Handicap at Oakland today. His victory was the most popular of the season, great applause following the finish of the race. Likely Dioudome ruled favorite, while a liberal price was again quoted against Arasee, owing to the race being at five-eighths of a mile. Pride of Lismore led most of the way, but Arasee closed fast and caught him in the final twenty yards.

Rain fell steadily and the track was muddy. Favorites fared poorly. Judge Henderson proved a surprise by winning the last race.

The Assembly at Sacramento today passed the Walker-Young bill. It is now ready for Governor Johnson to sign and will become effective fifteen days after he affixes his signature. It was announced today that R. T. Wilson will have first call on the services of jockey J. Glass next season and A. G. Blakeley has given Capt. E. B. Cassatt second call.

Some of the owners racing here are planning to ship to Juarez in view of the prospective closing of racing here within the next three weeks.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

R. Bros., Chicago. Juarez racing begins at 2:30 m. on all days.

TAMPA PATRONAGE SHOWS IMPROVEMENT.

Tampa, Fla., January 30.—The new management was considerably elated this afternoon by the large crowd that gathered to witness the racing. Three books were in operation and the volume of speculation exceeded former takes here this season, but as a majority of the winners were strongly backed favorites, it resulted in an unprofitable session for the layers.

The judges warned the riders today against rough riding or attempted interference in the races. J. Bergen and E. Griffin were the first to offend in this respect and were promptly suspended for three days each.

Jockeys T. Koerner, Troxler and Peak were arrivals from Jacksonville, in the Joplin consignment from Jacksonville which arrived yesterday was Arondack, which he purchased recently.

S. F. Hyman shipped his stable to Jacksonville to be raced there during the remainder of the season. It developed today that George Norse is not intersted in the booking venture here, Sam Stephens being the sole lessee.

Jockeys McArdle and King were each suspended three days by the starter.

The horses of Dayton & Brush were among today's arrivals from Jacksonville.

Jockey A. Burton, who was seriously injured Saturday, regained consciousness Sunday, but is still in a precarious condition. His principal injuries consists of a slight concussion of the brain, injury of the spine and a badly sprained shoulder.

Jockey A. Wrispen, who suffered a dislocated hip last Thursday, is progressing nicely and will be about again in two or three weeks. His injury will not affect his future in the saddle, it is thought.

A FEW LIVE ONES

NO MONEY IN ADVANCE

I know of a horse that will win. I expect it to be at a good price. It will start Friday, February 5; rain or shine. I cannot send them every day, but when I do send one it will be appreciated. My first wire will convince you. My proposition is this: I will wire you my winners, rusting to your honesty to bet $2 for me and send me winnings on all wires sent and increase it $1 for me after each third winner without a loser. NO MONEY IN ADVANCE

I know of a horse that will win. I expect it to be at a good price. It will start Friday, February 3, rain or shine. I cannot send them every day, but when I do send one it will be appreciated. My first wire will convince you. My proposition is this: I will wire you my winners, trusting to your honesty to bet $2 for me and send me winnings on all wires sent and increase it $1 for me after each third winner without a loser. Address at once,

J. E. LAWHORN,

630 Date Street.
